Christmas is the time for giving and for contemplation as the old year dies and the new one is about to be re-born.

It is at this time some look to the Angelic realms to provide answers whilst others are in contact with the 'other worlds' for the whole year (like Star Temple readers). Many stained glass windows in churches depict these wondrous winged beings being with us at all times and in all circumstances.

Angel actually means 'messenger' and are considered to carry a message to us mortals from God. Christmas is a special time, as these winged messengers came

Editor's Letter

A whole year has gone by and now we are about to enter the final phase of the old year. This time of the year vibrates Yin energy, nature is on hold with the cold winter holding the buds and leaves that wait to unlock themselves for the Spring. This is a natural tide of the year to contemplate the esoteric world, which is why Christmas can hold a magic quite unlike any other time.

If we come out of the mad consumerism and go back to basics we can create a special time that allows us to look at the relationships that we create and work on improving them, both the human and esoteric kind.

I hope you like the beautiful poem by Sufi mystic Rumi and if you study the ancient image on the page, of the origins of Man, you will see that we have been depicted to be at the centre of the esoteric universe, holding elements of it within us.

Wishing you all a wonderful christmas and a great time connecting with your Angels.

Until next time.....

◆ feng shui tip of the month

What: Bring in greenery to your home to reflect the natural world. Also have bowls full of fruit in your dining area.

Why: The greenery will help absorb negative energy that can come at a time of year that is pressured for some. Also fruit will reflect abundance into your life and a full fruit bowl is a sign of wealth and prosperity.

to assist Mary and Joseph with the birth of their child Jesus, and when they saw that the child was born they were so filled with joy that they burst into glorious song and it is this sound current that we emulate in choirs. An Angel appeared in Bethlehem at the time of Christ's birth and they are associated with Christmas for just this reason and why they play an important role in our Yule Tide celebrations.

The Bible shows many examples of Angels and in the New Testament there are 9 ranks of Angels and they are headed by Michael the Archangel.

It was around 1200AD that the doctrine around Angels developed with Saint Thomas Aquinas. He taught that the bridge between God and man are the Angelic forces that come to Earth carrying Divine messages and act as a beautiful bridge of light.

It is considered by some that we all have our own Guardian Angel and that they are assigned to be with a particular person giving loving support; although unable to interfere with the individuals life path. They are a guiding light in dark times and their loving support manifests in many ways.

Interestingly a poll published in Time magazine showed that over 69% of people interviewed in the USA, believe in Angels and that some have had an experience relating to Angels. There is of course no scientific evidence but stories abound giving anecdotal examples of people being touched by them. Some report the sound of wings and a feeling of immense love, some say they have felt as though Angelic wings are wrapped around them.

How do we contact our Angels when we need them? Are we too busy or disconnected to hear them when they speak to us?

According to Angel expert Doreen Virtue, you can contact your Guardian Angel by the following methods:

- write a letter to your guardian angel and spell out your problems and needs
- by visualizing them - "see" protective angels around you in your mind's eye
- call them mentally and think your plea to the angels
- speak aloud - state your case verbally

If you are wondering about Christmas gifts then I cannot recommend enough the beautiful Angel cards by Doreen Virtue. The invitation to work with these wonderful images of the Angelic beings is a gift that will grow and grow.

Or you could even get a loved one to donate some cash to help you become an Angel Practitioner thereby helping others in darker times. PL

Origins of Man

*I died as inanimate matter and arose a plant,
I died as a plant and rose again an animal.
I died as an animal and arose a man.
Why then should I fear to become less by dying?
I shall die once again as a man
To rise an angel perfect from head to foot!
Again when I suffer dissolution as an angel,
I shall become what passes the conception of man!
Let me then become non-existent, for non-existence
Sings to me in organ tones, 'To him shall we return.*

Persian Islamic Sufi mystic Rumi - from the poem Masnavi

Throughout the year we usually have twelve lunar cycles and therefore twelve Full Moons but, approximately every three years, there is an extra Full Moon. This is called a "Blue Moon" – which we now use metaphorically to describe an extremely rare event. This month we have the phenomenon of a Blue Moon on New Year's Eve, in the sign of Cancer, and it's also a partial lunar eclipse. This is potentially tricky as eclipses can bring changes or difficulties you wouldn't normally expect. Take extra care when planning and enjoying the festivities, and pay special attention to your family relationships as you usher in 2010. With the final mystical Jupiter – Neptune union falling on the 21st the holiday period really is the right time to heal rifts and spread goodwill wherever you can.

Aries (Mar 21 - Apr 19)

The first ten days of the month sees you practically at fever pitch as the Sun in forward looking Sagittarius travels towards your planet Mars in creative Leo. Not only are you handling a full on schedule but your brain is also busy with mapping out future plans. When Mars turns retrograde on the 20th, however, be prepared for a shift in your priorities or tactics. Also remember that subtle strategies now win hands down over hastiness or impatience. Your love life sizzles on the 17th but, when it comes to expectations, combine passion with a broader perspective.

Gemini (May 21 - Jun 21)

The Full Moon on the 2nd in your sign brings the finer details of your current goals or desires to light. You are a natural at finding all the options but even you may have underestimated how many choices lie before you. Recognizing this puts you back in the driving seat and with your planet Mercury in goal orientated Capricorn from the 5th you can forge ahead with a new game plan. In your love life the party season brings togetherness, either through the chance to rediscover the fun factor in your relationship or to meet a new love interest.

Taurus (Apr 20 - May 20)

With the Full Moon on the 2nd lighting up your money sector and your planet Venus in visionary Sagittarius it's time to get financially creative, not just for the festive season but also for the coming year. Be willing to step out of your comfort zone and recognize that you are more than capable of being a high achiever. Follow up new ideas or opportunities with self belief, especially around the 21st, and you will create your own luck as you pave the way to a prosperous New Year. Love opportunities abound when you mix with like minded people.

Cancer (Jun 22 - Jul 22)

The Gemini Full Moon on the 2nd illuminates sensitive issues. You may be forced to take on more duties than usual or to question where your true loyalties lie, either professionally or personally. This is not necessarily a bad thing as you can now take on discussions that you would otherwise have sidestepped, enabling you to build a solid case for some serious decision making. Your love life thrives on more openness, notably from the 16th, and with the love planet Venus in your relationship sector from Christmas day you are in for some treats.

Leo (Jul 23 - Aug 22)

With fiery Mars lending power to your elbow you are on a roll, especially with projects or plans that are of your own making. Stay at the helm, keep the momentum going and you can expect to get definite results between the 10th and 15th. When Mars switches direction on the 20th you'll then have the chance to regroup and attend to other matters that have been on the back burner, including "me time". Socially you're in demand and the party scene brings flirting and romance, but take a new love interest slowly and backtrack fast on a mistake.

Libra (Sep 23 - Oct 22)

With serious Saturn now traveling through your sign there's an increasing focus on generally getting your act together. It is innately Libran to take a passive role, but when you do get in the driving seat there's no stopping you. When your planet Venus links up with Saturn on the 4th the signs of success, small or great, will spur you on. Security is an important issue for you, more so than usual, so foster extra togetherness with your partner. If you are in the dating scene you are not short of admirers, but test the water before jumping in at the deep end.

Sagittarius (Nov 22 - Dec 21)

December gets off to a flying start for you as Venus, planet of love and pleasure seeking, is now in your sign and powerfully placed through to the 17th. With the support of the Sagittarius New Moon on the 16th you can do what you do best, which is to live life to the full whilst also looking to the future with justified optimism. The deck is stacked in your favour, for business plans and relationships, especially when you think and dream on a big scale. Keep faith with your own ideas and visions more than ever – it won't be long before you are proved right.

Aquarius (Jan 20 - Feb 18)

The magical dance between Jupiter and Neptune in your sign which started in May comes to a stunning finale on the 21st. On the work front a dream project can now take shape or may already be yielding results. A new opportunity at this time may be making you pinch yourself, but it almost certainly comes as just rewards for past efforts. In your personal life the message is to do full justice to your romantic streak – your other half will lap it up. If you're unattached a festive social whirl from the 11th to the 21st reveals endless possibilities. Take your pick.

Virgo (Aug 23 - Sep 22)

The Full Moon in the career sector of your chart on the 2nd signals a milestone in your working life and it's time to take stock. As your planet Mercury is also on the move, travelling through ambitious Capricorn from the 5th, you are in a strong position to make serious plans or choices. The crucial ingredient is enthusiasm. Commitment comes easily when you are doing what you genuinely enjoy. Finding your niche leads to expanding your circle of contacts and colleagues too, and there are opportunities galore around the 21st to mix and mingle.

Scorpio (Oct 23 - Nov 21)

Your planet Mars has all the lights blazing in your career sector, indicating that an extended period of creative productivity is already underway. If ever you are going to make a name for yourself it's now so forge ahead and grab your share of the limelight. When the Sun unites with your other planet Pluto in empire building Capricorn on Christmas Eve you will see beyond doubt the full measure of the transformative processes at work. Don't forget to let your hair down. Social occasions during the festive season are perfect for spontaneity and unwinding.

Capricorn (Dec 22 - Jan 20)

With your planet Saturn now in charming Libra and highlighting your sense of purpose there is a definite message around seeking the support and collaboration of others. On the career front you can get the wheels turning if you plan your festive party calendar around networking opportunities. Who you meet may well prove to be more significant than you know, especially on the 4th. Christmas is super special as the pleasure planet arrives in your sign on the 25th but don't overlook the need for some deeper soul searching with love issues.

Pisces (Feb 19 - Mar 20)

Life can be a struggle for your sensitive nature but do not give in to fear or despondency. As your own planets Jupiter and Neptune unite on the 21st, for the third and final time this year, you have the chance to make real sense of important events, both mentally and emotionally. Any errors of judgment on your part, or on someone else's, can now be corrected with stunning results. Work headaches can be resolved and advice from the benefit of someone else's experience or vision proves invaluable. Be receptive and you can't miss.
